

PART I

ELECTION DAY - BRIEF REPORT

On getting to the polling unit, open space at Qijibhere, unit seven (7), 11th ward II, Ono state. An argument argument occurred by the polling units voters sharing that the place wanted to us the INEC officials to conduct the election wasn't a political polling unit but a place of worship and there was no other available place to conduct the election because the whole community is surrounded by water. This led to a serious and dangerous argument within themselves trying to take charge of electoral material, for the safety ^{of} myself and that of my assistants and security personnel managed to escape to a boat that brought ^{us} to RAC.

Therefore, no election conducted at that polling unit.
