

REPORT ON POLLING STATION NO. 101 POLLING UNIT

There was a fight at about 10:00 during the election which broke out between the two candidates and the security officers. During this period I called out the two men to stop the fight and stay with the security officers and later after the security settled the matter, we came back to the booth and started election and we noticed that the 5th of January, with the question was about to start there were some on the other side, there were some more and some votes were recorded and the 5th.
